Stay covered, Insurance made easy

Loss and tragedy are part of life, often striking when we least expect it, leaving us emotionally and financially drained. The loss of a loved one is especially hard, not only does it take an emotional toll, but it can also lead to significant financial strain. Funerals can be expensive, and no one should have to worry about affording a proper farewell during such a difficult time.

Having a financial plan in place does not hasten the inevitable, instead, it provides much-needed support for those left behind. Just as we insure our health, homes, cars, and businesses, we should also consider insurance to cover the expenses associated with the celebration of life.

Stanbic IBTC Sunset Benefit assurance plan offers your family peace of mind when they need it most. It covers burial expenses and related costs, ensuring that you can say goodbye to your loved ones in the way you choose. More importantly, it provides a layer of financial security for your family during a time of emotional turmoil.

While planning for death is never easy, the comfort it provides during difficult times is invaluable. To get started, send an email to insure@stanbicibtc.com or call 02 01 270 6801.
